What Our Governors Say:

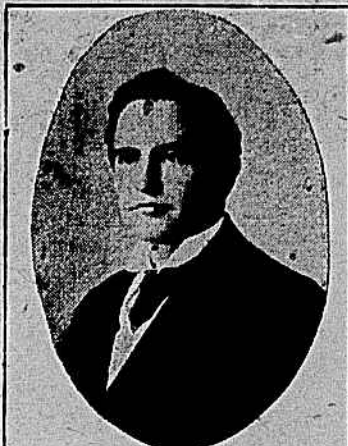

Hon. W. W. Kitchen, Governor
State of North Carolina, says:

"I know Charles L. Padgett, President of the Southern Commercial School and Audit Company, of Greensboro, N. C., and I take pleasure in stating that Professor Padgett enjoys the reputation of a gentleman of high character. He is doing faithful, efficient work in his Commercial Schools, and has been successful.

"I commend his schools to those seeking education in commercial lines.

Ex-Governor R. B. Glenn, Special Representative Assembly's Home Missions, Presbyterian Church in the United States, says:

"From what I know of the Commercial Schools and Business Colleges conducted by Prof. Chas. L. Padgett, and from what has been told me by those who have entered students therein, I am able to heartily endorse the work of these colleges in fitting our boys and girls for useful and profitable lives, and I expect to show my faith by my works by entering a pupil in these schools in the near future."

CHAS. L. PADGETT, President.

PERSONAL.

Senator R. L. Taylor, ex-Governor of Tennessee, in the December issue of the Taylor-Trotwood Magazine, says:

"Prof. Padgett is a man of conservative thought and broad ideas, keen insight and sound judgment. His one purpose is to fit young people for the best they are capable of in life, and this he is doing loyally. The individuality of the man is reflected in the student body, and gives caste to any institution where the human mind is under training."

A Dozen Points of Superiority:

1. The highest home endorsement.
2. The highest grade, most thorough, practical courses.
3. The most modern, best equipped school buildings.
4. The only schools in the Carolinas conducted by a faculty of expert accountants.
5. Each day's work begun with chapel exercise.
6. Library and reading-room for students.
7. Literary and debating society conducted by the students.
8. Graduates "deliver the goods" and are in great demand.
9. Positions are secured for all graduates, whether of single or combined courses.
10. The first in the State in graduating proficient office and clerical help.
11. Boarding Department, whereby the best room and board may be obtained at a minimum rate.
12. An Actual Business Department, where students buy and sell real goods and balance actual cash, using cash register, adding machine, loose leaf and card ledgers, triplicate sales sheets, etc. (No other in the South Atlantic States has such a department.)
